

Orthomolecular Medicine for Professionals

International Society for Orthomolecular Medicine

About Orthomolecular Medicine for Professionals.

The Society of Orthomolecular Medicine is expanding its activities.

The International Society for Orthomolecular Medicine (ISOM) is a registered organization based in Canada.

The aim of the Society is to promote the advancement of orthomolecular medicine worldwide, to raise awareness of this fast-growing and cost-effective healthcare practice, and to unite existing groups in the field.

The Society held its inaugural meeting in 1994. April 29 In Vancouver, Canada.

ISOM President.... Atsuo Yanagisawa, MD, PhD

Founding President Abram Hoffer, MD, PhD

Past Presidents Oslim Malina, MD; Gert Schuitemaker, PhD

ISOM Directors.... Steven Carter, Jack Kay, Ron Forster

Professional membership in the International Society of Orthomolecular Medicine is available to: physicians, psychiatrists, pharmacists, naturopaths, nurse practitioners, physician assistants, osteopaths, and other health care professionals.

Members receive valuable benefits.

Possibility to participate in conferences as needed:

48th Annual International Conference on Orthomolecular Medicine.

49th Annual International Conference on Orthomolecular Medicine.

Discounted registration for all ISOM conferences, continuing medical education programs, and online courses.

Free registration for certain online seminars and online courses.

Monthly e-reports containing an index of recently published nutrition research literature from various international medical publications.

Profile page of orthomolecular medicine catalog *

Students participating in an accredited medical, pharmacy, or nutrition program can apply for free membership status and qualify for continuing education scholarships. Contact the Membership Administration for more information.

New applicants must create a user account to process payments and access online resources.

Existing members (updated annually) should sign in using the "My Account" navigation menu.

* Eligibility criteria, processing fee and additional terms may apply.

Prepared by

The International Society for Orthomolecular Medicine is a Registered Charitable Organization (Canada - 845552355 RR 0001)

Orthomol, Omnival, Orthomol Immune, Orthomol Sports, Orthomol vision, Orthomol Beauty, Orthomol Tendo, Orthomol Arthro plus, Orthomol Immun Pro